

New Markets Tax Credits

An opportunity for your community

NMTC Basics and Investor Perspective

Overview

- What are New Markets Tax Credits?
 - Tax credit program designed to stimulate commercial investment in “low-income communities”
 - The program is administered by the US Treasury Department through a division called the CDFI Fund, in a unique “public/private partnership” with Community Development Entities (CDEs) and is competitively awarded
 - Recipients of awards or “allocations” selected qualifying projects and work with investors to supply the GAP capital required to support business start-up & expansion, commercial development, community facility and mixed-use project financing.

Overview

- What is a “low-income community”?
 - Based on census tract data – median income and/or poverty rate
 - Qualifying vs. “Higher Distress”
 - Includes unemployment, Brownfield areas, State Enterprise and other State and Local designated distress areas medically underserved areas, food deserts, Colonias and HUB Zones, among others
 - Qualifying census tracts in non-metropolitan counties automatically qualify as “higher distress”
 - Qualifying census tracts can be located using the mapping program provided on the CDFI Fund website at www.cdfifund.gov or at the following link: www.bakertilly.com/tax-credit-mapping-tool

Overview

- What is a “Community Development Entity”?

- CDEs come in a variety of forms:
 - An affiliate of a municipality to promote economic development
 - An affiliate of a bank to help meet the bank’s community reinvestment goal
 - Non-profit and for-profit entities with a mission to serve low income communities
- CDEs have defined geographic service areas and are charged with evaluating each potential NMTC transaction for community impact
- Each CDE has its own mission and business objectives, which differ widely among CDEs
- CDEs can be found using a search engine on the CDFI Fund website at www.cdfifund.gov

Overview

- How does the program work?
 - Through a competitive process, CDEs are delegated authority from the CDFI Fund to attract federal third party investors through utilization of the tax incentive to invest in economic development projects.
 - The investors acquire the rights to the tax credit incentive and these proceeds are combined with other project funds and typically structured as low interest rate, convertible loans to fund into qualifying businesses or commercial real estate developments through what is most commonly referred to as a leverage structure.
 - CDEs will search for qualifying businesses and real estate developments to provide NMTC-subsidized financing, which is also a competitive process.

NMTC Program Benefits - Borrower
